

Governor to lead European trade mission in May

(March 17, 2007) - Governor Mitch Daniels will take the story of Indiana's economic comeback to Germany and the United Kingdom when he leads a state delegation there in May. The governor's mission will call on several companies that have recently made investments in Indiana. Read the news release.

Governor's Update

Volume 1, Issue 26
March 12 – 18, 2007

Governor challenges local governments, businesses to “Buy Indiana”

(March 15, 2007) - State government has made sweeping advances in its commitment to Buy Indiana, Governor Mitch Daniels said Thursday speaking at the Indiana Chapter of the National Institute of Governmental Purchasing annual meeting, and he challenged Indiana's businesses and other public entities to do the same. Read the news release.

U.K. Technology Company to locate its global life sciences headquarters, operations in Indiana

(March 16, 2007) - Oxford BioSignals Medical, the life sciences subsidiary of U.K. - based Oxford BioSignals, announced on Friday it will establish its global life sciences corporate headquarters here. The company's transcontinental move brings with the promise of 120 clinical, technical, operational and commercial positions. At the announcement, Daniels said, “We're demonstrating again today the ambition we have for Indiana to become the premier destination for companies in the life sciences, and the real progress we're making to become a leader in this sector.” Read the news release.

Governor presents Sachem to Jane Blaffer Owen

(March 13, 2007) - Governor Daniels honored community leader and philanthropist Jane Blaffer Owen, with the 2007 Sachem, the state's highest honor. Mrs. Owen received the Sachem before a State House audience that included her friends and family from the town of New Harmony and other leaders from southwestern Indiana. Read the news release.

To view past updates, click here

Visit Governor Daniels' Web site:
www.in.gov/gov

